Has Been Arranged for Tonight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Mr. Bryan left here at 7 o'clock this morning to make a final tour of Indiana. His special car arrived at 6:50 and ten minutes later was attached to a special Big Four train, leaving for the West. The train was in light running order to make record time if necessary.

Mr. Bryan did not leave his car here, not having arisen. A local party, headed by Mayor Taggart, occupied a coach when CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .- Mayor Harrison, as spokesman and a committee will go as far as Hammond, Ind., to meet Mr. Bryan. The receiving delegation has been so enlarged that a special train was engaged yesterday to transport the party. The trip will be made over the Monon road. The train will leave Polk Street depot at 2 p. m., and will arrive in Chicago at 3:55 p. m.

It is believed there will be a great crowd at the depot when the party arrives. Captain Farrell has promised to be on the ground with the County Democracy Marching Club, at least 300 strong. This organization will act as an escort to Mr. Bryan from the depot to the lake front, where at 4:30 p. m., he is scheduled to address a mass meeting.

This will begin the last rally of the Democrats for Chicago and the electoral votes of Illinois. Mr. Bryan is to begin speaking at 4:30 o'clock and appointments have been made for him for every hour from that time up to 11 o'clock tonight. except an hour for supper. He is scheduled for some twenty speeches tomorrow afternoon and evening and for an equal number on Saturday.

The meetings have been carefully arranged for bringing the candidate into close contact with the laboring men of the city. Philippines, Porto Rico, or Cuba. Under During the past twenty-four hours the city has been flooded with stickers and of 10 per cent in pay for serving in those posters urging workingmen to vote for territories, but also suffer a decrease of 15 per cent when on shore duty. ### COLLEGIANS FOR MR. BRYAN. Maryland Institutions Form a Domo cratic Association.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1 .- A movement of college men for Bryan, embracing stu- night, and speeches were made by Arthur dents, alumni, and faculty of colleges throughout Maryland, was brought to a head yesterday under an organization known as the Bryan Inter-collegiate Association of Maryland.

The four largest institutions of this city—the Johns Hopkins University, the Maryland University, the Baltimore Medical College, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons—are the four charter memand Surgeons—are the four charter members of the association upon which the work of organization has devolved. Besides these, however, there will be represented the Baltimore University of Law, the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, Loyola College, Southern Homeonath Medical College, Eaton and Burnett Busi. ness College, Etrayer's Business College, the Baltimore Business College, all of this city; St. John's College, Annapolis; Maryland Agricultural College, Western Maryland College, Rock Hill College, Charlotte Hall College, and Mount St. Mary's, lo-cated in different sections of the State. The movement is the first of its kind ever started in Maryland. It originated with the Johns Hopkins Democratic Club, organized last week. Prof. Maurice Bloomfield, Professor of Sanskrit and Comparative Philology in the Johns Hop-kins University, has promised his assist-ance as an honorary vice president of the association, and names of other prominent citizens and alumni of the institution which have enrolled will be announced when the list is complete.

The Bryan Association intends to hold a large meeting at Lehmann's Hall next Saturday evening, at which over 1,100 students are expected to attend. A larger hall was desired for this meeting Music Hall was already engaged for the are watching the rebellion in the southern provinces of China very closely, as it is considered that a successful development of this uprising would seriously affect. The laborers at the Conghan mine of the Indoorers at the In of this uprising would seriously affect Tonking.

The recent explosion in Canton in some houses adjoining the official Yamen, by which a number of persons were killed, is regarded by the French officials as evidence that the Chinese authorities are powerless to maintain order.

Under the convention of 1898, France and China guaranteed not to make any changes in the provinces adjoining Tonking. France also leased a portion of the Kwangtung coast, and it is therefore regarded here that it is incumbent on France to aid the local Chinese authorities in suppressing the rebellion

Hitherto, the five warships stationed at Canton were considered a sufficient pre-House would be increased to 430 members, but according to census officials the opinion is expressed that the basis of representation will not be less than 200,000 nor more than 210,000.

Democrats would gain seven and lose two. Should 210,000 be adopted as the basis, there would be a gain of nine and a loss of eight, making a net increase of one in the membership of the House and the vote of the Electoral College.

The States that would gain one each on this basis would be Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Texas, and West Virginia. The States that would lose one each would be Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Nebraska, Ohio, South Carolina, and Virginia. This would give the Republicans a gain of PARIS, Nov. 1 .- A despatch from Pekin dated October 30, says the report that Capt. Newt Hall, of the American Marine Corps, was to be court-martialed, is probably founded on the fact that he abandoned a vital position on the city wall during the siege. This position commanded the legations. His senior officer, Captain Myers, imbraska, Onio, South Carolina, and Virginia. This would give the Republicans a gain of six and a loss of four, and the Democrats a gain of three and a loss of four, counting Kentucky as a Democratic State, or a net Republican gain of three.

There will be considerable opposition to increasing the membership of the House as much as would be the case if the basis of mediately rallied Captain Hall's men and reoccupied the position before the Chinese arrived there. The men held the position until the end of the siege. If they had not done so the Chinese would have made Renunciation of the Throne. BUDAPEST, Nov. 1 .- There was strong ind earnest opposition by a section of the Hungarians to Archduke Franz Ferdinand's renunciation on behalf of his wife and possible children of all claims to the throne of Austria-Hungary when he married Countess Chotek a short time ago. The matter was keenly debated in the Reichsrath yesterday. The opposition contended that the Hapsburgs' household laws could not everule the Hungarian constitution and that Hungary disregarding the household laws, would insist that the wife of the heir to the dual throne (Franz Fer inand) should be Hungary's future Quee nd that her children should be entitle o the succession.

It was in vain that Prime Minister Da explained the household laws the Hapsburgs and reminded his hearers that they were well known to everybody His declaration, which, he said, he made with sincere regret, that whatever happened Countess Chotek could never b Queen of Hungary, raised a tremendors tumult, the members of the Opposition vigorously shouting, "She shall be Queen." After the noise had subsided the Prime Minister continued: he archduke ascends the throne of h's ers the nations will accord to Co ess Chotek the devotion and respect due the wife of the King of Hungary, but it will never accord her the rights of a Queen of Fungary. Nothing on earth can remove the obstacles in the way. The archduke narried the countess after full consideration. He knew the consequences f his marriage and will abide by them. The men were at work of a pillar and were at the bettom of the pitch when the pillar fell out upon them and buried them beneath a mass of coal. They were probably instantly killed. The body of Connors was found first. It was horribly crushed. Shepard's body was found several feet from where Connors lay.

This is the third accident in this city and vicinity since work was resumed on and vicinity since work was resur.ed on Monday, and several men have been kill-ed and wounded. Miners at the Dela-ware Pine Ridge and Laurel Run colleries here are being docked 20 and 25 per cent since the strike ended, and are de-manding that the practice shall end at once. The men at Delaware mine went on strike this morning, and others are exected to follow ton

The bosses say since the men returned work the men have not obeyed the rule for topping, which requires six inches above the rim of the cars, and that they are compelled to dock heavily to make up for the deficiency. A great deal of trouble is feared over the question, as the men declare the six inch topping is too much and demand an immediate change.

Rice Case Conspirator Cuts His Throat in the Tombs.

laken to Bellevue Hospital in a Critical Condition-Had Previously Made a Full Confession, Implicating Attorney Patrick-Attempt at Suicide Made With a Nail File,

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 .- Charles F. Jones, valet to the late William M. Rice, and the alleged arch-conspirator in the plot to get possession of the dead man's millions, in partnership with Attorney Albert T. Patrick, attempted suicide in his cell this He was found with his throat cut almost from ear to ear at 4 o'clock a. m., lying in a pool of blood which had come from jagged wounds inflicted by a nailfile. A keeper discovered him while making the usual rounds. Jones was immediately hurried to Bellevue Hospital in an ambulance, and is lingering between life and death. The hospital surgeons cannot yet tell whether he will live or die.

Jones recovered consciousness when he reached the hospital and managed to gasp that he had obtained the weapon with which he tried to end his life from Attorney Patrick, who is also locked up in the Tombs on the charge that he conspired with Jones to get the money of the mil-

Patrick was visibly agitated when he learned that his alleged partner in crime had tried to end his life, but he denied vigorously that he had given him any veapon with which he could cut his

Patrick's story in this respect is borns out by persons who have witnessed the hearings which he and Jones recently had in Centre Police Court.

The rumors of last night and early this norning to the effect that Jones had made a full confession of the conspiracy against the millionaire and his estate were verifled by Assistant District Attorney Osthe appointment of George J. Gould as borne today. Mr. Osborne admitted this morning that Jones sent for him late last night and told the whole story.

It was expected that the grand jury would take action on the case this afternoon and that Jones would go on the stand as a witness for the State against Patrick, but the condition of the valet will prevent this. The confession of Jones was made to District Attorney Osborne and Chief of Detectives McClusky before Captain Baker, of Houston, Texas, counsel for the Rice heirs and two other lawyers. All refuse to say what occurred at the conference. That Jones gave important information last night was evident. The detective bureau was stirred to extraordinary activity as a result. Captain McClusky called for a dozen men after the interview with Jones and they were despatched all over towns, apparently on clues given by the Some hurried to 500 Madison Avenue.

the former home of Mr. Rice. One went to Brooklyn. Those who went to the Rice ouse were in search, among other things, of a sheet of blotting paper on which Jones, it is said, told Mr. Osborne he had blotted the signatures of Mr. Rice on a number of checks which have all along been leclared forgeries. The blotter is to be submitted to chemical analysis. The first borne in the Criminal Court Building. It was the second interview within twentyof the four hours.
